I cite some of the authors I would recommend to beginners: David Rhind, John Baillie, and Eric Hoffer, one of the most knowledgeable and widely read American authors on the topic. Also, William Hoyt's volumes, published by Harbor Publishing Company, have been particularly helpful in terms of good illustrations, and David Rhind and Gee Atherton's excellent series of three writings on Jung's work, in particular, a classic essay on "the psychology of Synchronicity" by G. Richard Duran of the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, CA. Many of these works are summarized in my book Synchronicity, which explains the phenomena in terms of math. The definition of synchronicity has been extended by many authors, notably the late Dr. Hans Selye, for whom, I have composed a set of lectures about the issue. They are "Ancient Secrets Revealed. In this volume, I also include many of my own words relating to the phenomena from my previous three books. In addition, I have composed a set of lectures pertaining to mind control topics. These are The Secrets of Human Sacrifice, The Hidden Face of Excess, and The Darkest of Secrets. I suggest you to read the first two of these only after reading the ones on synchronicity. Each of them has a unique perspective on the phenomenon. John Talbot is a graduate of John F. Kennedy University, who currently works at the Pentagon. He has significant personal experience in hearing voices, dying experiences, near-death experiences, and viewing how the mind interacts with the body. He has often been a thorn in the side of the CIA and other mind control agencies. 6d1f23a050
